INVITATION by the UBUMELWANE

Most of you will have read the piece by Ronnie Kasrils that appeared in the Cape Times on Friday, June 21, 2013, with the headline: The ANC's Faustian moment. The same piece also appeared in the M&G on the same day. It forms part of the Introduction to the reprint of his book 'Armed and Dangerous'.

Ronnie lives in our ubumelwane (our neighbourhood) and I asked if he would address a small gathering to tell us more on what motivated his views and analyses.

Come listen to him on 15 July at 10.30 - 12 noon at Sunny Cove Manor where Peter and Solveig Kjeseth will once again be our hosts and open their home to us. Light refreshments will be served.

The full text of the new introduction to his book is attached.

I look forward to seeing you there,

Horst.

How to get to Sunny Cove Manor:

If you come from Muizenberg go through Kalk Bay and Fish Hoek. Go straight ahead on Main Road past the shops, up a slight rise at a roundabout. Carry on to the left (Simon's Town Road) direction Cape Point. After about one minute you will come to a traffic light. Turn right and immediately left. The entrance to Sunny Cove B&B is the second entrance on the left. There is adequate parking in the street but not on the grounds of the B&B.
