Good day. Below is the invite that went to my list of 'neighbors'. Acceptances and regrets are coming in at the moment.

With what is happening in Rustenburg right now, the subject is gaining in currency, sadly, once more.

Regards,

Horst.

To: Ubumelwane

Invitation

On 10 March from 4 – 6 pm. At Sunny Cove Manor B&B

To listen and to learn from

Lula Gabreyesus and Barakhat Ghezai

both

Eritrean refugees living in our neighbourhood, our umelwane

They will speak of their hopes and personal experiences in South Africa with officials and in our society. They will also speak about their country, its history, the present circumstances and their hopes of going home one day.

Eritreans are not the only refugees living in our neighbourhood. There are others from DRC, Mozambique, Zimbabwe and elsewhere. We hope to have meetings with them also.

To make real, in a small way, what good neighbours or abamelwane are about, this is one in a number of meetings. The walls that separate us cause prejudice and misunderstanding.

There are many walls in our umelwane. Good abamelwane work to remove these walls, one at a time!

There will be discussion after the meeting and you are also welcome to make suggestions about ways in which Neighbourliness in our area can be taken forward.

Bring along friends and neighbours! If you want this email to be sent to others, please forward it or send us the emails and we will invite them. Refreshments will be available.

Please RSVP to:

Horst Kleinschmidt: kleinschmidt.horst@gmail.com.

Or by phone: 021 788 2174

Or Peter and Solveig Kjeseth: peter@sunnycovemanor.co.za.

How to get there:

If you come from Muizenberg go through Kalk Bay and Fish Hoek. Go straight ahead on Main Road past the shops, up a slight rise at a roundabout. Carry on to the left (Simon's Town Road) direction Cape Point. After about one minute you will come to a traffic light. Turn right and immediately left. The entrance to Sunny Cove B&B is the second entrance on the left. There is adequate parking in the street but not on the grounds of the B&B.
